

Secret Circus Terms and Conditions of business:

The term 'Secret Circus.' or 'us' or 'we' refers to Secret circus Ltd, the school and its approved teachers. The term 'you' refers to the student in the class. These terms and conditions of business are set out the following:

- Membership Policy
- Membership Policy Code of Conduct

Membership Policy:

Completing the online Secret Circus registration form through our third party system is an obligatory requirement for any student participating in a class at Secret Circus. The registration form will ask you for any relevant medical information and details of a current emergency contact. Aerial activities involve an element of risk and physical exertion. Whilst practical measures are taken to reduce risk we cannot eliminate all possibilities of injury. Please note that membership does not include personal accident insurance. We reserve the right not to teach any student we feel may not be fit enough to undertake the activity safely.

Code of Conduct Training at Secret Circus is subject to the following code of conduct:

- You will at all times show respect to all teachers, students and visitors at Secret Circus.
- You will endeavour to behave in a responsible and safe manner at all times.
- You will not use any of the Secret Circus equipment or undertake a new trick without granted permission and supervision from a Secret Circus approved teacher.
- Secret Circus reserves the right to terminate any class or to substitute teachers at short notice.
- Please treat the equipment provided for your use at Secret Circus with great care.
- Please wear suitable clothing for classes (close fitted dance or fitness wear).
- Absolutely all jewellery and piercings must be removed as they could get caught in the equipment. Failure to comply is at the risk of the individual participant and not the responsibility of Secret Circus.

- All accidents must be reported to a Secret Circus teacher immediately.
- Any loss of blood or bodily fluid must be reported to a Secret Circus teacher immediately.
- Mobile phones must not be used during classes. Recording equipment may be used with permission of your teacher.

Our privacy policy data protection policy are available at our website.
